General

Autumn - the season of leaves returning to their roots, the season of nostalgia and reminiscence. Autumn arrives beautifully, brushing away the scorching rays of summer and bringing forth a gentle, serene, contemplative atmosphere in the cool, soothing air. Despite its beauty, it still holds a multitude of emotions, feelings, and a sense of longing within.

The music of the season of longing

"Autumn is the season that teaches us that change can be so beautiful."

Just like autumn, there are melodies that bring us loss and regret, and there are also sweet, gentle, and profound ones.

Criteria

So, what criteria are there to evaluate a piece of music as having an autumnal melody?

Regrettness

Sweetness
